QUARANTINE has been declared by the Board of Health of Cincinnati against all travel and freight from yellow fever points south of Louisville.

The Cincinnati Gas Co. of the 21st inst., says:

"Yellow fever, favorable crop reports, and a sudden shakiness in the combinations to keep up prices, have together brought about a sudden decline in grain and provisions. The decline in Chicago between Saturday the 12th and Sunday the 13th, amounted to 10¢ to 11¢ on wheat, 1 cent on corn, 2 cents on oats, and 90 cents on pork. The low prices are inviting buyers for foreign markets and their operations which are already considerable, will probably start a reaction.

Blount county Normal School.
At a called meeting of the members of the Blount county Normal School a meeting was held for the purpose of passing some resolutions in regard to the instructors of the said Normal.

A committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions, and they reported the following:
Whereas, We the teachers of Blount county, have been intimately associated with Dr. Elliott, Prof. Coppock and Mrs. L. Taylor during the course of our Normal; and

Whereas, We are all of us, and offer some public testimony of our appreciation of their services as teachers of said Normal; therefore,
Resolved, That we tender to our County Superintendent of Public Instruction our sincere thanks for his untiring zeal which has manifested in our behalf as teachers, and for his efforts to elevate the character, and improve the efficiency of our Public Schools.

Resolved, That while he has had in view the interests of the people he has also been careful of those of the teachers, recognizing the fact that injury to the one must react upon the other.

Resolved, That our thanks are tendered to Prof. Coppock for his excellent lectures on Theory and Practice of Teaching, Instruction in Education, and other labors during our Normal, and that we recognize in him an able and efficient Normal instructor and an earnest worker in the cause of education.

Resolved, That we return thanks to Mrs. L. Taylor for her patient, painstaking, and that we recognize in her womanly dignity, kindness of heart, and Christian zeal.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the editors of the Maryville Index, the Democrat, Knoxville Chronicle, Knoxville Tribune, and London Journal & Publications.

LATEST FROM MEMPHIS.

The Yellow Fever Situation Grows More and More Alarming.

Thirteen New Cases and One Death Reported Yesterday.

Rapidly Spreading in the Northern Portion of the City.

Two Refugee Cases of Fever Developed in Louisville, Ky.

Tom. Buford, the Kentucky Murderer Sent up for Life.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, July 23.—Thirteen new cases were reported to the Board of Health this morning.

Among them were J. L. Reister, wife and child, and ex-Chief of Police Thomas W. O'Donnell. One death occurred, Mrs. Delia Barry, in Mosby street.

The fever seems to be gradually spreading in the northern portion of the city and Chelsea, which up to yesterday had been exempt.

Michael Athy, brother to Chief of Police Athy, was taken sick last night, and, it is thought, has yellow fever. Citizens continue to leave the city in large numbers.

The authorities are still looking about for a site to establish a camp.

LOUISVILLE, July 23.—The Board of Health officers discovered two cases of yellow fever in this city yesterday afternoon, both of which were brought from Memphis, Mrs. Sam'l Eckers, wife of the barber who died in Memphis several days ago, and who came to Louisville on Sunday, is ill at the residence of a friend on Story avenue, in the eastern part of the city.

The other case is that of Miss Essing, also a refugee from Memphis, who is residing with relatives on Portland avenue. Both cases are of mild type, and there is no excitement over their discovery.

There are no cases of local origin.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—A dispatch received by the National Board of Health from Shelbyville, Tenn., states that there are no new cases of yellow fever there, and the refugee case is about the same.

MONDAY'S SICK LIST.

From Tuesday's Nashville American we clip the following list of sick reported on Monday. It is much larger than our telegrams reported:

The following is a complete list of the new cases reported to the Board of Health to-day: Bob Thompson, aged 29, City Hospital; Dr. J. C. Harris, aged 42, 360 Wellington street; Jas. Cunningham, aged 11, 204 Desoto street; George Nall, aged 33, 343 Main street; William Thare, aged 43, Gate's avenue; Katie Coppinger, aged 22, 105 Madison street; W. C. Coppinger, aged 23, 105 Madison street; Mrs. Mollie Philomoth, aged 26, 49 Jefferson street; Chas. Philomoth, aged 35, 49 Jefferson street; Joe Adams, aged 7, 73 Clay street; Fannie Adams, aged 4, 73 Clay street; Frank Adams, aged 6 months, 73 Clay street; Wm. Drenstahl, aged 15, 12 Beale street; Stella Raja, aged 11, 91 Hernando street; Rosa Koebel, aged 18, 284 South street; Katie Koebel, aged 16, 284 South street; Pat. Meach, aged 16, 196 Desoto street; Lizzie Meach, aged 18, 196 Desoto street; Mrs. P. Wehrum, aged 47, 79 Clay street; Annie Wehrum, aged 17, 79 Clay street; Louise Wehrum, aged 6, 79 Clay street; Wm. Wehrum, aged 12, 79 Clay street; Phillip Wehrum, aged 13, 79 Clay street; Henry Levering, aged 16, 75 Clay street; P. Parthenius, aged 40, 79 Clay street; Guy Moore, aged 2, 199 Elliott street; F. G. Bartlett, aged 25, 16 Madison street; Eva Woodrich, aged 19, 62 Bedford street; Mrs. E. Lockard, aged 40, Lizzie Lockard, aged 13, and John Lockard, aged 16. This family resides at 358 Hernando road. They started for Covington, Tenn., but were taken sick on the road. Mrs. Lewis Brummond, aged 40, 352 Hernando; Rosa Reynolds, colored, aged 18, in the rear of Judge Ray's residence. James Heister, Jr., aged 7, 84 Clay street.

SPREADING.
The fever is unquestionably spreading, and already embraces nearly every portion of the city. North Memphis and Chelsea are alone exempt.

THE DEATHS.
The following died of the yellow fever since last report: F. Lorenzi, aged 30, City Hospital; W. C. Coppinger, aged 23, 105 Madison street; Dr. J. C. Harris, aged 42, 360 Wellington street. Neither Dr. Harris' case nor Mr. Coppinger were reported to the Board of Health until after death. Dr. Harris is the well-known dentist, whose office was at the corner of Monroe and Main streets. Mr. Coppinger came from New York last fall, and was employed at Menker Bros. and latterly with B. Lowenstein & Bros. His wife now lies dangerously ill with the fever. Their two children have been removed to a place of safety.

STILL LEAVING.
The anxiety of citizens to leave this ill-fated city is daily increasing. Every train that departs is crowded, and hundreds have gone into the country. All species of vehicles have been pressed into service, and the roads leading from Memphis are filled with wagons, conveying the panic-stricken people to places of safety. There were 300 passengers aboard the steamer Coahama, which left this evening for St. Louis. Nearly all of them had their passage paid by the city authorities, who are using every exertion to depopulate the city. Two physicians, Dr. Willett and Dr. Brown, were engaged to accompany the steamer to St. Louis. Main street already begins to assume a Sunday appearance. Nearly every prominent retail house has closed. By the end of the week none will be left in Memphis except those who can not get away, or those who remain in anticipation of receiving free rations. Perhaps a wooden box will be their share.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, July 23.—At a meeting to-day of the bondholders of the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad Company, for the purpose of hearing the report of the Committee on Reorganization, it was decided that the road and franchise shall be sold under a decree of the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria, in the suit of John R. Graham vs. the Company, now pending, and the Trustees appointed who shall purchase the road and organize a new company and execute new mortgages in place of the originals. The common and preferred stock of the old companies is to be represented by stock in the new company upon a basis of one hundred dollars of the latter for five hundred of the former. Parties to this scheme are required to subscribe their assets thereto by the first of next September.

NEW YORK.

SARATOGA, July 22.—The attendance to-day was good, the weather being fine and the track in good condition. The first race for the Alabama stakes, for three-year old fillies, one mile and an eighth, was won by Ferida, Clarissima second, Scutilla third. The second race for the Flash stakes, for two-year olds, half a mile, was won by Sensation, Grenada second, Rosalie third; time 49½. The third race of a mile and a quarter, handicap, was won by Checkmate, Monitor second, Jerrie B. third; time, 2:09½. The fourth race, free handicap steeple chase, for a purse of $800, divided, was won by "Trouble."

SARATOGA, July 23.—It rained all night last night, but stopped for a short time at 10 o'clock this morning. The track is heavy. The attendance is small. The first race, one mile dash, was won by Zozoos, Franklin second, Bonnie Wood third.

VIRGINIA.

NORFOLK, July 23.—In a difficulty to-day on the steamer Gipsy, carrying the mails between Franklin, Va., and Plymouth, N. C., Col. Zimnie McDonald, of Washington, was shot by T. J. Barhage, Captain of the boat. The ball entered the left cheek, breaking the jaw bone and knocking out some teeth, but is not considered fatal.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, July 23.—James Charles and his son and Alex. Nugent, painters, were precipitated into the street by the giving way of scaffolding to-day in front of the Opera House. Charles died in a short time, Nugent is in a critical condition and Charles' son is badly hurt.

THE INDIANS.

DEADWOOD, D. T., July 22.—A Fort Keogh special says an engagement took place near the mouth of Beaver Creek on the 17th inst., between two companies of troops and Lieut. Clark's Indian scouts of Miles' command and three hundred hostile Sioux. The troops lost four Indian Sioux killed and two soldiers wounded, when General Miles' main column, which was twelve miles behind, came up. The Indians were pursued fifteen miles, but made their escape to Sitting Bull's camp. It is very probable another fight has taken place before this. Bear Wolf's band of Crows, who are at Terry Landing, report three hundred lodges of Sioux on this side of the Missouri, on their way to Keogh, to make friends with the whites.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Superintendent of Mails at St. Louis has telegraphed to the Postmaster Department that the Postmaster there has refused to receive mails from the infected districts and asking instructions. The following reply was sent by the Acting Superintendent of Railway Service to-day: "By direction of the Postmaster-General, you will deliver all mails that can not be forwarded to their destination, on account of quarantine regulations, to the Postmaster at St. Louis, who will be held responsible for the safe keeping of the same."

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, PA., July 23.—The Republican State Convention met this morning in the hall of the House of Representatives, with a full attendance of delegates. An organization was effected by the election of Hon. Galusha A. Grow as permanent chairman. Samuel Butler was then nominated for State Treasurer by acclamation.

KENTUCKY.

OWENTON, July 23.—The jury in the case of Buford, on trial for the murder of Judge Elliott, after being out eighteen hours, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, and fixed his punishment at imprisonment for life in the penitentiary.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

NORFOLK, July 23.—Richard H. Chamberlain, President of the Citizens' Bank, died suddenly at his residence in this city, aged 72 years.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, July 23.—The Globe and Echo, this afternoon, publish the statement that the Government has received a telegram from Sir Bartle Frier, announcing that Lord Chelmsford had defeated the Zulus under King Cetshwayo with an immense loss, and that the war is virtually over. Newspapers publishing this statement do not say whether the telegram came by way of Madeira or St. Vincent.

In the House of Commons this afternoon Sir Michael Hicks Beach, Colonial Secretary, announced the receipt of a telegram dated Cape Town, July 8, confirming the news of a decisive victory gained by Lord Chelmsford's forces over the Zulus virtually ending the war as given by the Globe and Echo to-day. Lord Chelmsford remained in camp till the afternoon of July 3d, awaiting the surrender of the cannon and thousand rifles captured by the Zulus at Isandula. Those not arriving he was attacked in the open country by fifteen thousand Zulus, who fled under a heavy fire of the British. Lord Chelmsford then advanced to and destroyed the unlandi. The Zulus' loss amounts to 800; the British lost 20 killed and 53 wounded.

In the Prize Shooting at Wimbledon, Milton Farrow, American, won the Albert prize, with a score of 70.

PARIS, July 23.—A dispatch to the Times says the disunion of the Bonapartists is becoming daily more apparent. Some of them advocate the claims of Prince Victor, son of Prince Jerome Bonaparte; others are only willing to accept Prince Jerome on certain conditions, and now M. Granier De Cassagnac urges in the Pays that lineage is nothing, and that everything should depend upon the result of the plebiscite.

A battle was fought July 4th. The Zulus, who were variously estimated at from ten to twenty thousand in number, surrounded the British troops, who formed into a hollow square. The Zulus charged the square on all four of its sides. After the Zulus were broken by the British fire, they were pursued by the cavalry and utterly routed. Lord Chelmsford burned and destroyed all military kraals, and returned to his camp the same evening.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says: In consequence of the prevalence of incendiarism, the authorities of Kharkoff have divided the town into 324 fire districts. Every household is bound to keep a special night watchman and to have thirty buckets of water always ready.

East Tennessee.

We can assure our readers that good board at reasonable prices can be had in almost any town in East Tennessee from Cleveland to Bristol. Prices vary from $12 to $20, according to location. Besides places mentioned in our special from Knoxville last Friday, are many others, among them Mount Nebo, ten miles from Maryville and in the vicinity of Montvale. This place is on the top of Chilhowee Mountain, 5,000 feet above the level of the sea. It is a romantic, charming place. Board $20 per month. Then there is Lea's Springs, quietest noted place, twelve miles north of McMinn's Station, just above Knoxville. The proprietor, Mr. J. D. Clinton, keeps a good house and also charges $20 per month, and half price for children. Morristown, forty miles above Knoxville, can accommodate a large number, and one of the hotels charges only $15 per month. Jonesboro' can take a number yet and Rogersville is not quite full. The drought has cut off vegetables somewhat, still there is enough to supply all demands. We speak in the interest of our own citizens. We say we believe East Tennessee is as healthy as any section and the cheapest within reach of Memphians. Nearly all the well-to-do farmers are willing to take a few boarders, and if cases of extortion have occurred, they must be few and far between.—Memphis Ledger.

We have before us the first issue of the Daily Dispatch, the new evening paper, a notice of which appeared some time since in the CHRONICLE.

It is a twenty-four column paper, 21x31, and gotten up in good style, printed by the Dispatch Printing Company. We are acquainted with many of the printers connected with it, and certainly wish them financial success.

Its editor, Mr. C. W. Charlton, is no novice in journalism, having been connected with several newspaper enterprises in this city. Of course, the paper is Democratic in politics.

WIRELESS, childless—without domestic ties—Savage has no pride in the past and no hope in the future.

It's certainly an ill wind that blows nobody good. The water haulers about town are kept quite busy supplying the demand made by the many dry distillers.
